Description

The organic aesthetics of natural stone paired with the warmth of an open flame for your patio

Exclusive Design & Nature-Inspired Shape

The Betondeko gas fire pit table, crafted with the texture of a cut natural boulder, is the ultimate fusion of an outdoor art piece and a functional terrace heater. Designed to mimic a massive raw stone smoothed by time, its polished top features a sleek built-in fire bowl. This piece seamlessly integrates into any landscape design — from alpine rock gardens and eco-style spaces to modern minimalism.

Handcrafted from lightweight glass fiber reinforced concrete (GFRC / Glasscrete), it offers extreme durability. The material is fully weather-, frost-, UV-, and temperature-resistant, retaining its refined look 365 days a year.

Key Features

- Clean Flame Without Smoke or Ash: Forget chopping firewood, clearing soot, dodging sparks, or dealing with harsh smoke. Enjoy warmth and cozy ambiance with zero hassle for you or your neighbors.
- Instant 1-Second Ignition: Features an intuitive control panel with electronic piezo ignition. Light the fire at the touch of a button and smoothly adjust the flame height to your liking.
- Powerful Outdoor Heating: Delivering up to ~12 kW of heat output, it efficiently warms the surrounding lounge space during chilly evenings, autumn nights, or winter gatherings.
- Thoughtful Ergonomics: Generous tabletop space around the burner allows plenty of room for wine glasses, coffee cups, or plates, transforming the fire pit into a functional outdoor lounge table.
